RE: Automodular Corporation v. Delphi Corporation, Case
No. 08-cv-037520-VM

Dear Judge Marrero:

On May 27, 2008, Delphi Corporation and certain of its subsidiaries and affiliates (the "Debtors"), appellees in the above-referenced appeal from the Bankruptcy Court, electronically filed its brief in this matter. The ECF system automatically included in the docket entry a date by which appellant's reply brief must be filed. The Debtors were unable to change the date generated by the ECF system.

Bankruptcy Rule 8009 indicates that an appellant may file a reply brief within 10 days after service the brief of the appellee. Bankruptcy Rule 9006 indicates that periods of eight days or more are calculated by counting calendar days, not business days. Pursuant to the Southern District of New York's Procedures for Electronic Case Filing, procedure number 9, "transmission of the Clerk's Notice of Electronic Filing of a document shall constitute service of such document upon any Filing User in that case." Because counsel for the appellant are registered users of the ECF system (having filed pleadings electronically in this case), service was effectuated on May 27, 2008 (in addition, the filing was emailed to counsel for the appellant on May 27, 2008 and also sent by overnight mail). The deadline for appellant to file its reply, pursuant to the Bankruptcy Rules, should therefore be June 6, 2008. Counsel for Automodular has agreed with this briefing schedule.

The ECF system indicated that the filing deadline would be June 13, 2008. The Debtors request that this date be corrected on the docket to accurately reflect that the appellant's reply brief must be filed by June 6, 2008.

Respectfully yours,
